

Great Brook Farm

State Park, 984 Lowell Rd., Carlisle, MA
Next Thursday, May 20, 2004
Meet 10:00 AM at Hart Barn Parking Lot

Selected by Wayne Clemens, our Guide-of-the-Month.
The internet web site shows how extensive and up-scale this park is!!
<http://www.state.ma.us/dem/parks/gbfm.htm>

We plan a one hour plus walk at a leisurely pace led by Wayne.
Rating: Easy walking. Many, many trail options. Mostly flat.
Optional lunch.

Directions: (State Park is north of Carlisle about 15 miles from Wayland Center)
Take your best road to North End of Main St. (Rt.62/2A) in Concord, MA
Go around common just past the Colonial Inn to Lowell Road north toward Carlisle.
Lowell Rd. continues as Concord Rd. north ending at RT 225 in Carlisle Center.
Jog east on RT 225 and find another Lowell Road north to the State Park.
We will meet at the Hart Barn and Ski Center parking lot just north of Park Headquarters.
There is no fee for seniors 62 and above. Many of us have a green pass for this purpose.

I will leave my driveway at 9:15 AM and can take up to 6 passengers. Please let me know if you want to ride with me. Any other carpools are welcome to park extra cars in my driveway.
Watch your Email for last minute details and any weather related changes.

Questions? Bill Towle 978-443-2838, billtowle@aol.com Cell 508-277-9892